"Can't Afford to Paint."

The man who says that, forgets that painting properly done is economy, and the fact is he can't afford NOT to paint.

How often you require to paint is largely dependent upon the paint you use.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

out last others. They are the most economical paints you can use, because they cover most and wear longest. Add to this their good appearance, and you have perfect paint—The Sherwin-Williams Paints.

They are made for many different kinds of painting. Whatever it is you want to paint—a house, or anything in or out of the house—we make the right paint for that particular purpose—not one slip-dash mixture for all.

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
And make allowance for their doubting too,
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good or talk too wise.

If you can dream and not make dreams your master,
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with triumph and disaster,
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to have the truth you've spoken,
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or see the things you gave your life to broken,
And turn and build them up again with worn-out tools.

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you yet none too much,
If you can fill each unforgetting minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it,
And, which is more, you'll be a man, my son.

Rudyard Kipling.

Have your babies Weighed and Measured

SLOGAN—"In any community no mother's baby is safe till every mother's baby is safe."

"Don't forget that the Children's bureau at Washington has set aside April 15, 1918 to April 12, 1919 as children's year." The above message is emphasized by Uncle Sam, who is urging all the mothers in America to bring their children who are under 6 years of age to the health centers to be weighed and measured and to get advice as to the care and health of their children.

Let the people of Campbell realize how much the health of its babies will mean to the coming generation. There are still many who have not availed themselves of this opportunity to know how their babies are and what to do for them if they need special care.

In the United States one baby in eight dies before reaching its first birthday.

Be sure yours is alright and try to keep it so.

Dr. Merrill is pleased to give the names of Dorothy Elizabeth Mills 20 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mills and Mr. Thomas Felix Sourisseau, 7 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Sourisseau, who are 100 percent children.

The days open this week to all babies under six are Thursday and Friday afternoon, during next week the time is on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

Canned Fruits, Jams, or Jellies For Hospitals

Any one who will give canned fruit, jam or jelly to be used by the soldiers and sailors in the hospitals will kindly leave them at Whitman's Hardware Store or at the Whitman home on N. Central. As we are not being asked to do so much work in other ways now, surely most housewives can spare something from their fruit closet for these injured heroes.

Please bring whatever you wish to give as quickly as possible.

Gossip!

Mrs. Jones told Mrs. Smith about it. Mrs. Smith spoke to Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Brown mentioned it to Mrs. White—so that's how the news began to spread—all about those sandwich and luncheon delicacies; that delicious pimento loaf, that savory pressed ham, and that delectable Salami. As a result, there's been a bit of a rush for these things.

The Fire Builders

By Rev. W. F. Graham.

As the winter night is changed to dawn,
When the bedtime hours have flown,
There are people who think of the morning
And still the weary moan.
They list to the raging of the storm
And are filled with strong desires
To remain 'neath the covers so soft
And warm.

But they know they must build the fires.
There are some who lie in their beds so warm
Through the cold and dreary night,
Untouched by the breath of the raging storm
Unawakened by morning light.

As the North wind howls and the cold snow flies
And the sleet clings to the wires,
There are others compelled from their beds to rise
For someone must build the fires.

'Tis a cold, cold world in the morning gray,
And the bed is a warm, warm place;
And it takes some courage to spring away
From the nest with a right good grace.

There are some who may ever avoid cold floors;
No duty their presence requires;
But fathers and widows and janitors
Must kindle the morning fires.

Articles needed include men's suits, overcoats and underclothes, women's coats, dresses and underclothes, boys' and girls' clothing of all sizes, knitted and woolen articles of all kinds, soft caps, gloves, all sizes. MT. DIABLO CEMENT SANTA CRUZ LIME

Pupil of El Paso School killed by auto

Clyde Lillick, who died last Thursday as the result of an accident near Santa Clara, was a pupil of El Paso School of his town. He was on his way to Campbell, riding a bicycle, when struck by an automobile. The coroner's jury after investigation and hearing testimony of eye witnesses rendered this verdict: "Clyde Lillick came to his death by being struck by an automobile driven by one John Currie, and we, the jury, find that said death was caused by the criminal carelessness of John Currie."

A bright, attractive life has been brought to an untimely end and great anguish enters a home through another case of reckless driving, as charged, on our highways.

Charges also are now pending against Mr. Currie in Judge F. B. Brown's court for a similar charge in the running down of Peter Foster on February 21, 1918, on the highway near Milpitas, at which time it is alleged that Currie did not stop his car or offer to aid the injured man. The High School or Grammar School Packages may be left any time between 7 A. M. and 6 P. M. at Whitman's Hardware Store.

Durable Clothes Made of Waste

At last! The high cost of dressing is to be brought to its knees. It has been proven that new clothes can be made from the odds and ends of whatever you may have around the house. Such are the allegations of the Longwood War Relief Unit of Boston, which is busily engaged in making garments for refugees. More than 1,500 garments are made weekly and at the great cost of—nothing. Miss Bonnie Belle Smith, daughter of Mrs. Eugene Smith, secretary of the Longwood unit, is shown with some of the clothes she wears, all made from salvaged waste materials.

What Chevrons Mean

Guide to Different Stripes Worn on Soldiers' Sleeves

"You can't tell the players without a score card," the familiar cry at the baseball parks, could almost be applied to soldiers returning from France, according to army officers. To aid the public in determining a man's time in the war zone and the number of times wounded, the following has been prepared:

War Service Chevron—A "V"-shaped bar of gold lace, worn on lower part of left sleeve of all uniform coats, except fatigue coats, by officers, field clerks and enlisted men who have served six months in the war zone. This chevron is worn point down. An additional chevron is allowed for each six months service.

Wound Chevron—Also a "V"-shaped bar of gold lace, worn point down, on the right sleeve. Not more than one wound chevron can be worn if two or more wounds are sustained at the same time.

Silver Chevron—For officers, field clerks and enlisted men who served six months outside the theater of operations a silver chevron (worn the same as the gold chevron) is allowed. For each additional six months another chevron is worn.

Scarlet Chevron—Soldiers honorably discharged wear a scarlet chevron, point up, on the left sleeve above the elbow. These are in addition to the usual service stripes.

Service Stripe—Enlisted men who served three years will wear service stripe of the corps or department of service. The stripes are worn diagonally on both sleeves of the dress coat below elbow.

Sky-Blue Cloth Chevron—Service of less than six months in theater of war is indicated by a sky-blue cloth worn as the gold war service chevron.

Half-Inch Spider Is Victor Over Fish Two Inches Long

The amazing strength of spiders is shown in a number of instances. Thus we have an instance of a half-inch spider catching a two-inch fish. It was of the ground or wolf family. A scientist came upon it struggling with a fish on the edge of a little pool. Its claws were buried in the fish's tail; it had the tail out of the water, but the head still remained underneath. The spider struggled to pull the fish up the bank and the fish struggled desperately to pull the spider into the water. For ten minutes the scientist watched this silent and deadly fight. Then he hurried away for a bottle in which to put the combatants when he captured them. He was gone about half an hour, and on his return the end had come. The fish was dead and the spider was slowly dragging its victim away.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

When it comes to saving pennies a woman will save a dollar before a man has saved ten cents.

When you see a pretty maid in a home it's a sure sign that the head of the house is not henpecked.

Occasionally a barber combs a man's hair the way he combs it himself, but a tonsorial artist never does.

North Carolina Forests to Be Tapped for a Supply of Ties for Railroad Tracks

How many ties in a railroad track? Did you ever ask yourself that question while riding on a train? North Carolina forests are to be tapped for a new supply, says Crete Hutchinson, who writes in American Forestry Magazine of Washington, as follows: "At the present time the railroad administration is facing a shortage in tie production. West of the Mississippi 50,000,000 cross ties are required annually for replacement; east of the Mississippi 80,000,000 with approximately 20,000,000 additional ties for street railways and other industrial needs. A grand total of 150,000,000 cross ties or 4,500,000,000 board feet of timber.

"Against a shortage of 65 per cent six months ago the present shortage is only 40 per cent and probably will be reduced to 30 per cent by the end of the year, due to better understanding of specifications. Thirty-four per cent of the timber used by the railroad purchasing committee is white oak. Large areas of the forested section of North Carolina in Transylvania, Jackson, Graham and Clay counties contain this timber and a road 40 miles long is being put in to get this timber out.

Working Both Ways.

"They are for the purpose of proving that the conclusions drawn from statistics previously compiled on the same subject are all wrong."

Once Too Often.

"Why have you quarreled with Jack?"
"Because he proposed to me last night."
"Well, there's no harm in that, is there?"
"But I had accepted him the night before."

Being Good for Nothing.

He—My father's a parson, so I can be good for nothing.

Bob—Goodness, you're ignorant! A Stradivarius is the Latin name for a fiddle.

As Men Do.

"They have to learn to be."
"What do you mean?"
"They can't dodge the issue by keeping their hands in their pockets."

Large numbers of farmers have more money in their business than the business men in their county seat towns have invested in their stores. Farmers are slowly coming to realize the truth of this comparison and that farming is a business

UGH! A DOSE OF NASTY CALOMEL

It salivates! It makes you sick and you may lose a day's work.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver
Tone and take a spoonful tonight.
If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow
you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time.
It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.—Adv.

Dat Ole Pipe

"I seah, bruddah, I thought you belonged to de church."
"So I does, bruddah."
"Den why ah you suckin dat ole pipe? Caint a feilsh smoke a pipe and blong to de church?"

"Well, yes, he may blong to de church buildin, but nevah to de church triumphant." "I'd like to know how you make dat out?" "Well, bruddah, look hat it in dis way, how would you look walkin' de golden streets uv de New Jerusalem wid dat ole pipe in yo mouf?"

"I'd jes snatch hit out veahy quick." "Yes but what would you do wid hit? You couldn't find any place to throw hit out a sight; no place to hide hit; no way to git rid uv hit. You've been given a nice white gahmint to put on, an dah ain't any pockit in hit to put de ole pipe in, so you'll hav to hide hit in yo han."

"I seah, Brudder Jones, you ah gettin a fellah in a bad fix wid de ole pipe, de way you ah puttin hit."

"But dat ain't all; by an hy yod'll want a smoke, an you'll walk de golden streets tryin to find a place to hide, so you kiah smoke; and de streets uv dat city is a-bout fifteen hundred miles long, an if you should git to de end uv de street you'd come right up agin de wall, dat is made of jaspah, an so high you can't climb ovah, an no hole in de wall to stick yo head thro for a smoke, an you'll almost make up yo mind, to smoke right in de golden city. Den you'll begin to think uv gittin a match to light de ole pipe; an den hit will come ovah you all uv a sudden dat dah ain't no matches in de clothes. Den you'd woosh you be back in dis ole world again wid de ole pipe, an wid de matches, an de ole pipe, so you'd could take some comfort."

"I seah, Brudder Jones, dema't stand dat I cain't atode to loose dem golden streets fur de ole pipe, so I seah hit goes, de pipe, de tobaccan, de matches, an all."

"Dat is de right way, if you was gon to a wedding, wheah yo fix up?"

"I'd fix up at home, uv course."

"Jes so. Now if you spect to go to heaven you must get ready down heah; for de church triumphant is de folks dat triumph ovah all deah sins, by de hep of de Laud; ovah all deah nasty habits, an live jes as pual as possible an hav no wrong thing about dem; fuh de Wuid sez, 'Let him dat is filthy be filthy still, an let him dat is holy be holy still,' so you see you'll be jes what you ah when you end up wid dis wuid; so, if you luv to use de devils c'vone, you'll have to go wheah de brimstone kindah kills de smel; you nevah nevah kin git into de Golden City, havin de you de smel of 'Dat Ole Pipe!'"

Address by John R. Mott

At Carnegie Hall, N. Y. City

Now look beyond the United States in this war. What complaints have you heard about our work on behalf of the Italian Army of three million men? In Italy we have been working under more difficult conditions than in certain other parts of the war zone. The Supreme Command of the Italian Army had an inspection made of what the American Y. M. C. A. was doing for the American Expeditionary Forces and on the strength of that investigation said, "We must have a similar work in the Italian army." They invited us to furnish secretaries and to back the work financially. When I was in Italy a few months ago I visited this work of ours, from the sun-baked plains of Venetia, away up to the icy heights of the Trentino, where in the midst of the granite crags I found what we call the huts, or abodes of the Casa del Soldato under the leadership of the American Y. M. C. A. This was 6,000 feet above sea level on the snow line, where the Association workers as well as the soldiers suffered more than at any other point unless it be the men who suffered so much from heat on the plains of Mesopotamia. The King of Italy sent for me to visit him in his villa near the front lines. He kept me an hour questioning me about our methods and our work. I was wearing the Association uniform, as was the custom in the military zone. His Majesty, observing the triangle on the sleeve, asked me to tell its significance. This afforded me a good opportunity to explain the distinctive principles of our work. He became especially interested as I expounded the physical, mental, and spiritual building up of men. At the end of the interview he said, "Tell the American Y. M. C. A. to spread its work to the maximum in our army." We now have nearly three hundred workers there under the leadership of Dr. Nollen, President of Lake Forest University.

What have you heard in the way of adverse criticism concerning the activities of the Y. M. C. A. throughout the vast areas of Russia? When I was there as a member of the Root Mission in 1917 I was much impressed by the opportunity to serve the then dissolving Russian Army and loyal elements among the Russian peoples, and it interested me to see that every member of the Mission came to the conclusion that the American Y. M. C. A. should be extended to Russia in that hour of great national need.

With such encouragement as the President and others gave we established the work and now have a staff of nearly one hundred men in Vladivostok and scattered across Siberia almost to the Urals, also in the region of the northern ports. Before the more ominous stage of the Revolution we had our workers in the heart of ancient or Holy Russia and along the disintegrating Western front. We have had an extensive correspondence with those workers and have had interviews with Russians of various parties, but I do not recall a single adverse criticism made with reference to that work. I wish you could have heard Dr. Masaryk, the President of the new Czechoslovak Republic, comment upon it with the greatest appreciation. Some of you heard Mr. Coit quote the Czechoslovaks as saying that they look upon the American Y. M. C. A. as the uncle of the Czechoslovak movement, having in mind the way in which we befriended them in the darkest hour and the practical manner in which the Association has served them all through their remarkable Russian experiences from the time they were imprisoned until they had fought their way to the Pacific. In a very true sense the American Y. M. C. A. helped them to become the rallying center around which gathered other stable elements. Later, when the Allies went in we were permitted to serve the American, the Canadian, the British, the French, the Japanese, as well as the Czechoslovak troops and the loyal Russians. General Graves, the highest American military commander now on Russian soil, has recently said that in his judgment the American Y. M. C. A. has done more to stabilize Russia than any other influence, and that it has been the best interpreter of the spirit of the American people to all parties in Russia.

Think also of what we have been permitted to do in hand with our British brothers, all through the war in serving the men that have guarded the Suez Canal, that great Allied key position; and how we have been permitted with the Australian, the New Zealand, and the British secretaries to go with Allenby all through the wonderful Palestine campaign; and how, with the British and Indians, with whom it has been an honor to be associated, we were able to work and to suffer on the plains of Mesopotamia until splendid victory was achieved; and how we have been able to blend the sacrifices of the American people, as well as the Association experience in those never-to-be-forgotten days of helping to nerve the men to impossible tasks on the Gallipoli Peninsula, where undying glory gathered round the heads of the men who survived as well as of those who perished; and how in Macedonia, where the great bloody wedge was driven in that took Bulgaria out of the war and stabilized Greece, the American Y. M. C. A. was not found wanting.

Let me remind you of what

Allies of Bolshevism

IN respect to the peace conference and the tremendous congeries of auxiliary organizations with which it has surrounded itself the verdict of history may be safely anticipated. Composed, as it is, of patriotic individuals of the very highest individual ability, posterity will say that as a collective unit it is the most incompetent and useless body that was ever assembled for the solution of grave problems.—San Francisco Chronicle.

It is just such masterpieces of muddy thought and muddled rhetoric that do more to encourage the elements of discord and destructiveness the world over than any other factor in American life, unless it be the attitude of such senators as Borah and Poindexter, and it is probable that the newspaper is far more influential than the senator.

Ninetieth Birthday of Mr. C. C. Brady

A very happy and remarkable birthday party was given in honor of Mr. C. C. Brady's 90th birthday by his daughter, Mrs. Palmer and his grand-daughter, Mrs. E. R. Kennedy at the latter's home, Thursday, March 27. There were 23 present for dinner. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ragsdale of Merced, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bowles of Gustine, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brady of Burlingame, Mrs. Chas. S. Fee and Miss Elizabeth Fee of San Francisco, some of whom will stay over till Sunday. In the afternoon Campbell relatives and friends were invited in for an informal reception in honor of Mr. Brady. He received many beautiful gifts and a shower of beautiful postcards from his many friends.

Notice of Election

Notice is hereby given that there will be an Election of Fire Commissioners for the Fire District of Campbell, to be held the First Monday of April, being April 7, 1919, to be held at the Coffee Club on Harrison avenue.

Polls open 8 A. M.; close at 5 P. M. By order of Fire Commissioners.

L. M. BEALL,
Secretary

The following men have been recommended as candidates in the coming election of Fire Commissioners:
Ralph Hyde, L. Genasci, Chas. Satter, E. G. Lanz, E. E. Lanphear. Make choice of these men and vote for three.

We have done for the great French Army to whom we owe the liberty of the world more than to any other army—that army of four millions of men. In that army of double the size of the American Expeditionary Forces, all of the Y. M. C. A. work has from the beginning been financed by America and many of the leaders for this ever-expanding ministry of practical helpfulness have come from America.

The French War Ministry, which at first had turned a deaf ear to this work, sent a deputation to New York and laid before the National War Work Council of the Y. M. C. A. the request of the French Government that we spread our work to two thousand points, thus making possible the covering of the entire French army. You do not deceive the French. Face to face with what the Association was doing in our own army and recognizing its real merit, they said, "We want to entrust this great enterprise of serving our troops to the American Y. M. C. A."

Now have you heard, I venture to say, a well authenticated criticism concerning what the American Y. M. C. A. has done for the four or five millions of prisoners of war. The American people should be reminded that the American Y. M. C. A. alone has been permitted to serve the prisoners of war on both sides of the struggle from almost the beginning of the war. I know I am well within bounds when I say that this agency was the means directly and indirectly of saving the lives of tens of thousands of prisoners; and the sanity of thousands more; and its spiritual ministry was literally life from the dead for multitudes. It is one of the most fascinating and wonderful chapters in the entire history of war service. "I was in prison and ye came unto me," was one of Christ's supreme tests of men.

We now come to the American Expeditionary Forces and if there is any part of this work of which I am more proud than of another it is the work of the American Y. M. C. A. in the American Expeditionary Forces. You have heard some criticisms of it. I want to tell you some things now that you have not heard criticized. You have not heard anybody, enemy or friend, criticize the fact that the Y. M. C. A. have had in operation in the American Expeditionary Forces fifteen hundred huts, rented buildings and tents, the free use of which is given to every man in the American or allied uniform. Last winter men did not criticize the fact that we paid between $60 and $70 a ton for coal in order that in hundreds of villages and other places where our men were billeted there might be one place, and often it was the only place during those bitterly cold days and nights, where our boys who had been drilling on the sodden ground and had wet feet or in the drifting sleet and rain and had wet clothing could come to dry themselves and get some warmth, and also have light, where they could write their home letters and read the magazines. You have not heard that criticized. If you did, you know what you thought of the thoughtless ingratitude which prompted it.

Poor Old Maid

She was many years in college,
And acquired a lot of knowledge;
On theologies and isms she is long,
She just dotes on reading books,
And she loves Charles Dana Gibson;
On theosophy and ethics she is strong.
But she can't bake a cake
Like her mother used to make,
Nor a pie, we are very much afraid.
And she can't mend a skirt,
Sew a button on a shirt,
So she's only just a poor old maid.
She has got a lot of scholars,
And is earning her own dollars,
And she's living in a cosy little flat.
Does she have to beg each penny
From a husband? Well, not any.
She's no family to care for but a cat.
And she doesn't have to bake
Any bread or pie or cake,
Or wash or iron, rake or hoe, or spade
Like her mother used to do
All the livelong summer through,
So she's glad she's just a poor old maid.

W. C. T. U. Report

Campbell W.C.T.U. spent a charming afternoon with Mrs. R. W. Kennedy on the 19th of march, in spite of sincere regrets owing to the removal of Mrs. Vandergon, one of our loved members, from California to Minnesota. Mrs. M. E. Hill read the scripture lesson and Mrs. Duncan led in prayer. Under the head of new business quite a number of communications were read and considered.

One of considerable significance was the one sent out by Mrs. B. C. Washburn in behalf of the "Double Drive," to double the membership of our unions and to raise $20,000 in Northern California, the half of this for the million dollar National budget under the following heads:

Child Welfare,	$150,000
Health and Morality,	100,000
Americanization,	200,000
Woman in Industry,	30,000
Education and Information,	20,000
World Prohibition,	300,000
Headquarters at Evanston,	50,000
Equipment and Repairs,	20,000
Field Service,	30,000
Administration,	70,000

and half for State budget including Hospital Mothers, French Orphans, Law Enforcement, and general work.

Campbell Union entered into the Campaign with earnestness.

Mrs. R. W. Kennedy accepted chairmanship of a committee for the first week Mrs. Whitman for the second week of the allotted time-ten weeks. Reconstruction is highly important at this time; A foothold has been gained in world prohibition and our organization has an advantage over any other because of our world W.C.T.U.

America must continue the teaching of total abstinence and still push the work of Scientific Temperance Instruction in the schools.

A request from the Red Cross Chapter in San Jose was read, asking for aid in supplying the pressing need for clothing, shoes, and blankets among the suffering thousands of Europe, a call to which the W.C.T.U. invariably responds.

Communications from state W.C.T.U. officials bespeaking our interest, in a number of bills were also considered by the union; An urgent call for bringing influence to bear upon legislation favoring the State Industrial farm for delinquent women. It is highly important that this bill shall carry in order to give practical help to these unfortunates.

List of assemblymen and senators and districts represented by them and how they voted on ratification was enclosed with other literature. During the social hour following a short program was rendered. That the occasion be not fraught with too much seriousness because of the loss of a loved member, and it being near Saint Patrick's day, Mrs. H. C. Whitman gave a string of Irish jokes. Mrs. Merriman read a beautiful selection furnished by Mrs. Vandergon. Mrs. Baldwin gave a dramatic recitation assisted by Mrs. J. O. Duncan who sweetly sang appropriate selections in connection with it. Mrs. Duncan also sang two beautiful solos that were much enjoyed by all.

The hostess served delicious cakes and tea. A little tribute of affectionate regard was presented Mrs. Vandergon by the president in behalf of the union. Mrs. Vandergon responded, with much feeling and appreciation.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. C. H. Whitman, April 2d and it is hoped there may be a large attendance. All interested are invited to come.

High School Notes

The High School entertainment which was given on last Friday and Saturday evenings was a thorough success and enjoyed by every one present. The proceeds which were taken in for that evening and for the May Festival, amounted to $325. This adds greatly to the French war orphan fund. The students were much pleased to see the auditorium filled to overflowing on both nights and they wish to thank everyone who bought a ticket to swell the fund. The children in France will be glad to know that they are being cared for and that we are so interested in them.

The amount taken from the sale of flowers, both real and paper, helped a great deal. Monday afternoon an auction sale was held to auction off the posters which the drawing class made a week before the show and which have been in the windows of the stores down town. Five dollars and sixteen cents was the sum raised by the sale of posters.

The May Festival will be the big feature of the season, taken from Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream.

You will hear more of this later.

The High School Y. M. C. A. report that the members of the club met as usual on Thursday evening March 20 at 7:30.

Owing to the rehearsal of the Juniors and Seniors for the shows the coming evening, a considerable part of the time was spent witnessing their extraordinary talent. After rehearsal, the members of the club enjoyed a "feed" which was the first "feed" the members of the Y. M. C. A. have had this year. Since we have enthusiastic leaders as well as boys the members may look forward to many such "feeds." After the refreshments were served the remaining part of our time was spent in games and in listening to one of our Y. M. C. A. Secretary tell of one of his visits to a volcano in Japan. Having thus ended the evening in joy and merriment we departed for our various homes.
